

6 July 1987

His Excellency Sir David Wilson, K.C.M.G.,
Governor of Hong Kong.

Your Excellency,

In 1985 and 1986, we carried out a review of leave and passage arrangements in respect of serving officers in the civil service. We submitted our recommendations on various ways to rationalize the administration of such arrangements in two letters of 30 December 1985 and 17 February 1986 to His Excellency, the late Sir Edward Youde, and also in another letter of 28 January 1987 to the then Acting Governor, Sir David Akers-Jones. We now have the honour to submit to Your Excellency a consolidated report containing these three letters.

We have the honour to be
Your Excellency's obedient servants,
