

CHAPTER ELEVEN

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

11.1 We are most grateful for the continued support from both staff and management in providing us with information and views which have been of considerable assistance to our deliberation. We are indebted to staff representatives, heads of department and other senior government officials for affording us the opportunity to meet them and to discuss with them problems relating to the review.

11.2 We wish to record our particular gratitude to the 92 private sector companies which participated in the Pay Comparison Surveys. Information on the remuneration of their staff has provided a useful reference point for our review of civil service qualification group benchmarks.

11.3 The Civil Service Branch has been very helpful in supplying us with the information and data needed for our study. Our thanks are due to the Secretary for the Civil Service and his staff for the support that they have rendered.

11.4 The translation of the English text into Chinese and the printing of both versions of the Report have been completed within a very short period of time. We thank the Commissioner for Chinese Language and the Government Printer for their valuable assistance in enabling us to produce this Report.

11.5 We also wish to express to the Secretary-General and the staff of the Commission Secretariat and the Pay Survey and Research Unit our deep appreciation of their hard work and unfailing support throughout the second phase of the review.
